

Year of Dragon 2012 prediction part 1 of 3

Predictions for 2012 the Year of the Dragon - by Edgar Lok Tin Yung - Dec 2011

Most of the Chinese Astrology Consultants or Feng Shui Masters nowadays just using the Start of Spring (立春日) day and time plus the year and month in Lunar Calendar to construct a Four Pillars chart to predict events for the coming year.

In my opinion, using the Start of Spring day and time to predict for the coming year is wrong. The Four Pillar chart is related to personal luck. Yearly prediction should use the Jia zi (甲子) cycles (Sexagenary cycle) and look at three different levels. They are

1. The Heaven Luck,
2. The Earth Luck and
3. The Man Luck.

2012 The Heaven Luck

First of all, don't worry; 2012 year of the Dragon, It is not the doomsday or the end of world.

However, there will be more natural disasters in relation to earthquakes, and water incidents such as flooding, tsunamis, sea level changes.

According to calculation, the year of the Snake 2013 will be even worse in term of natural disasters. This article is predicting 2012 year of the dragon. So now let's just concentrate on the year of the Water Dragon (Ren Chen 壬辰).

For animal signs, always remember that the cut-off point is NOT on the Chinese New Year's day. It is on the "Start of Spring" (立春) and it normally falls on the 4th or 5th February each year.

The Chinese New Year for the year of the Dragon is on the 23rd January 2012. However the "Start of Spring" (立春) is on the 4th February 2012.

The Heaven Luck for the world events, the effect starts kicking in when the Earth is approaching the Winter Solstice in 21st or 22nd December each year.

2012 is the Ren Chen (Water Dragon 壬辰) year.

壬 (Heavenly Stem) The element is yang Water.

辰(Earthly Branch) The main element is Earth. Hidden elements are Wood and Water.

It is Water on Earth.

According to the cycle of birth and destruction earth is the destroyer of water and so they are on the destructive cycle and have conflict relationship.

壬 is Yang Water. It symbolizes Oceans, Rivers, heavy rain and large body of water.

辰 is Earth. It is dam, mountains, high land, stone, and landscape.

辰 is also called the water storage. It is also known as reservoirs.

In the Yin Yang theory, Yin is slow, passive and Yang is active, fast. 2012 is a Yang year, so things are happening very fast and quick.

Now we put the above signs together to form a picture. We get the follow.

2012 is a wet year. We will see more Rain, Snow, icebergs melting and so on.

Major man made dams around the world, may have a few incidents due to flooding.

Water incidents like flooding, tsunamis, avalanches will be on the news a lot.

The hidden water element inside the Dragon will be sucked out to the surface due to the Yang Water. It gives us a picture of water or liquid coming out from the ground. The Earth/ground must make way for the water or liquid. As a result, there will be series of earthquakes or volcanoes eruption in the Dog's month (8th October to 7th November) or Monkey month (7th August – 7th September) or Rat month (7th December – 5th January 2013).

Year of the Yang water Dragon 2012 has a very similar energy level to the Yang water Rat in 1912, 1972 and 1952 the Yang Water Dragon.

Exactly 100 years ago, 1912 the year of Yang Water Rat, in April, the RMS Titanic sank and took with her more than 1500 people.

In 1972 the Yang water Rat again had similar energy level of 2012, in April and December 1972, there were earthquakes in Nicaragua and in the Iranian province of Fars killed thousands of people.

60 years ago in 1952, the last Yang Water Dragon year, there were flood in England and the West Ice accident in Greenland. 78 seal hunters on 5 Norwegian seal hunting vessels perish without a trace.

If you are aware what is happening in the top North West of Australian Sea, flooding in Philippines recently, as we approaching to Winter Solstice, you can see the Yang Water power is starting to take effect.

The conflict relationship between the Stem and Branch is that the bottom level opposes the upper level. There will be more rebellions from the bottom level. The opposition party will be elected into government in a lot of countries.

The year of the Dragon, the growth is suppressed. Be very careful in January 2012, April 2012, July 2012, October 2012 if you are on the share market. Avoid investment in transportation, aviation, shipping, logistic and so on...

In the first half of the Yang Water Dragon, 4th February to 7th August, the active Water element will drain the METAL. As the result, the gold price will drop. But in the second half of the year, the gold price will be going up.

The Dragon, according to the classical text, it can live in the water, land and in the air. The dragon is more than an amphibian. With such characteristics, it is dynamic, quick and changes. 2012 is a year of changes in Religions, Conceptions, Philosophy, innovations and Values. There will be a lot of news in relation to policies changes, new policies, rules and regulations, laws.

News in relation to high profile religion figures will be reported more. Religions conflicts get worsen and more news comes from religions sector.

2012 year of the dragon, the birth rate will be higher. So products market to new parents, babies have good opportunity to sell more.

2012 and 2013 "Long Flow Water"

Heavenly Stem and Earthly Branch combine and they produce WATER element for 2012 and 2013. It has a special name called "Long Flow Water". This means that water flows persistently in 2012, 2013. In addition, 2012 year of the Dragon is 10 dragons producing water. Each year the more the dragons (maximum up to 12) produce water, the more rainfall it produces for the year.

In 2012 the annual star number 6 is in the centre palace. Annual star number 6 is metal. It represents metal element, breathing organ, the brain, the father, heaven, the large intestine and the law. This centre number often reflects the world events dominant in the year. So it may be issue as flu and virus (bird flu) affecting the brain and breathing organs. Number 6 is also the law, the government, the power, the father figure, especially in term of religious. The power of the above people will be challenged.

Year of Dragon 2012 prediction part 2 of 3

Predictions for 2012 the Year of the Dragon - by Edgar Lok Tin Yung - Dec 2011

2012 The Earth Luck - Feng Shui

Earth Luck is to deal with the bad energy where we live, work and play. That is the Feng Shui components of our house and office for the year of the Dragon.

Each year, there are three major big Sha (煞氣 Bad Energy) flying around. These three Sha have the power to override any flying stars combination regardless how good the natal flying star chart is. These three Sha are called the Grand duke or Tai Sui(太歲), Three-killings (三煞) and Five Yellow (五黃).

1. Tai Sui (Grand Duke). It is located at the South East.
2. San Sha (Three-killings) arrives at the South
3. Five Yellow. It is landed at the South East.

The number one rule to deal with Sha energy is NOT to "Move Earth", digging the ground or renovating in those areas/sectors inside or outside the house.

A Feng Shui saying stated that: "Avoid big Sha. Cure medium Sha. Neglect tiny Sha." (大煞宜避, 中煞可制, 小煞不理)

The South East Chen (112.5 – 127.5 辰字位) has Tai Sui

Tai Sui or Grand Duke is the yearly King. The Tai Sui locates at the South East in the year of the Dragon. The Chen belongs to Xun Gwa (巽卦) and it is soft Wood element. It is related to the soft wood system in our body including, hair, the liver, the gall bladder, arms, legs and back, so the health issues related to soft wood element could be hair lose, liver problems (alcoholic problems), gall bladder stone, broken arms and legs if the main door is facing south east. Lady's age 40 - 59 should pay more attention if living in such facing house.

The best way to minimize bad luck and sickness is not to stir up the yearly bad energy spots/sector. Yearly bad energy is like a sleeping tiger. It will be fine if the sleeping tiger has not been disturbed. However, if the tiger is waking up, it will bite you. "Move Earth", renovation, will wake the tiger up, so DO NOT dig, nailing, chisel and renovate the Tai Sui sector including the floor, ground, garden, and the walls inside and outside.

If your house facing South East or the main door is located at the Tai Sui sector South East, be sure closing the door slowly and gently when coming in or going out, as loud noise (sound waves) can trigger the bad energy too.

To reduce the impact of the Tai Sui, place a round metal objects such as round metal vase near the South East facing door.

The Three Killings is at the South sector (Li Gwa 離卦 157.5 – 202.5)

The South sector gets the Three-killings in 2012. It covers a very big area. Three killings represent lawsuits, gossips, arguments. And it is at the middle daughter area (age 21 – 39).

The South sector is Fire element. In health, it is related to the eyes, hearts, and blood pressure. This means that if a house is facing South or main door located at the south sector, the middle daughter of the house would easily have such problems.

In the world scale Feng Shui, the South sector is Australia and New Zealand. In 2012 the year of the Dragon is not a very stable year for Oz and Kiwi. There will be more water related incidents or earthquakes. There will be a lot more lawsuits or industrial actions in 2012.

Make sure the South sector of the house is clean and tidy. Keep this area as quiet as possible. If the Three-killing bad energy is disturbed, there would be 3 unfortunate incidents.

To minimize bad energy of the Three-killings, place a large pot with 80% full of clear water at south sector. If the water gets dirty or greasy, change the water as soon as possible.

Three-killings is Fire Element which will bring more bushfire to the south region. Fire prevention is important too in 2012.

Don't place any red objects or moving objects in the south sector including red carpet or red lantern or fish tanks with motor pump.

You cannot change the main door position but you can move yourself away from the bad energy areas.

The Five Yellow also at the South East (112.5 – 157.50)

The Five Yellow, representing misfortune and obstacle arrives at the south east sector in the year of the Dragon too. The South East sector has double Sha Chi. the five yellow together with Tai Sui is the worse combo. This will be affecting (arms, legs, liver, back...) the older daughter (mid-40s) a lot. If your south east sector of the house or office is an important area such as bedroom or entrances, it is recommended that place a motionless round metal object to dissolve this bad energy or move away from this area.

The money annual star number 8 which means prosperity is located in the west sector in 2012 year of the Dragon. As mentioned above, it is related to finance. There are a few ways you can activate the money star.

You can move to and sleep at this area if there is a room. If there is a doorway, use it more often for coming in or going out. Place six coins or some metal object in the area.

In the world scale Feng Shui, West is Europe. Dragon and Rooster combine. It means after entering the Rooster month, 8th September, the European crisis will gradually clear up. However, in 8th October -7th November 2012, the Dog month, the stock market will drop sharply.

This is part 3 of 3 for 2012 the year of Dragon predictions.

In this part, it is Man Luck. Man luck which means you and me, him and her every individual and their luck in 2012 the year of dragon will be forecasted.

Furthermore, the animal signs astrology does not start on the Chinese New Year day. It starts at the individual's birthday.

For more reliable assessment, it is recommended that to check the Four Pillars of Destiny fully with a reputable Chinese Astrology consultant.

Based on the yearly heavenly stem and earthly branch, some animal signs are more sensitive than the others. The most sensitive animal signs affecting by the Grand Duke or Tai Sui (太歲) in 2012 the year of the Dragon are the animal signs Dragon itself, the Dog, the Ox and the Goat.

The Heavenly Stem of 2012 is Yang Water Ren (壬). The Earthly Branch underneath is Yang Earth Chen (辰) and its animal sign is Dragon.

Yang Water on Yang Earth is in conflict. The Earth is underneath which is controlling the Water. So the Earth element has bigger effect.

In health issue, Earth element could be digestive system, food poisoning, skin and muscle problems. If there were more clashes and penalty in the Four Pillars natal chart, it may be skin cancer.

The Chen (辰 Dragon) is part of the Xun Gwa (巽卦) and it is soft Wood element. It is related to the soft wood system in our body including, hair, the liver, the gall bladder, arms, legs and back.

So for animal signs Dragon, Dog, Ox and Goat, firstly, must eat healthily. The skin and muscle are directly link to the digestive system. Eat more fruit, vegetables and drink more water will help the digestive system to clear out some unwanted residues from the body. As the result it will make you healthier.

Dragon, Dog, Ox, Goat should also avoid going to the hospitals, funerals. Especially for those who were born in the year of 1961, 1997(Ox), 1946, 1970, 2006 (Dog), 1979(Goat) and 1928, 1988(Dragon).

If female Dragon, Dog, Ox and Goat (age 18 – 45) give birth in the year of Dragon, it will reduce a lot of bad energy and troublesome.

Do more exercises and make sure there is sweating for every exercise.

Be more active and think positively. Go out and see more people and make friends. Be more generous to others.

Donation of blood or having a blood test done in April and October will help reduce bad energy too.

Be nice to your parents, father or mother-in-law or other elderly, even telephone them more often will bring you better luck.

DO NOT argue or debate with others in term of ideas, systems and religious. Be more flexible and open minded to yourself and others.

The following is a guide for each animal and their luck in 2012 the year of the Dragon.
